FORTY NINER COACHES

HOWARD W. (RED) HICKEY

Head Coach

Howard Wayne (Red) Hickey earned his spurs as a head coach last year when his 49ers, almost unanimously picked for the basement, made a thrilling run for the NFL championship. Key injuries and a lack of bench strength thwarted the San Franciscans after they had led the Western Conference for more than half the season. The over-all record of 7-5, however, was not satisfactory as far as the rugged redhead was concerned. He wants a winner.

Baseball, not football, was Red's favorite sport when he enrolled at the University of Arkansas in the fall of 1937. But the school was not participating in baseball at that time and Red became an All-Southwest Conference end in football and a guard on the Razorback basketball squad that gained the semi-finals of the NCAA tournament in 1941.

Red, however, organized his own baseball team and barnstormed throughout the state during the summers. He had several major league offers but football now was in his blood. After playing for the West in the annual Shrine classic at San Francisco in December, 1940, he was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Steelers traded him to the Cleveland Rams after one preseason game and he put in two full seasons of NFL play before being commissioned in the Navy. After serving as a gunnery officer aboard merchant vessels in the Pacific, he returned to the Rams in time to help them win the NFL championship in 1945.

Red moved to Los Angeles with the Rams in 1946 and performed at end, both offensively and defensively, before becoming an assistant coach under Clark Shaughnessy in 1949. Characteristically, his last campaign as player was one of his best. He caught 30 passes and was a terror on defense.

After the 1954 season, Red resigned from the Rams and joined the Forty Niners as an assistant to the late Norman Strader. In 1956-57-58 he was chief aide to Frankie Albert. When Albert resigned, Red was named to the top post.

His coaching philosophy is simple:

"From professional players, I expect 100 percent performance 100 percent of the time."

Red and his wife, Celia, reside in San Mateo with their three sons—Michael, 13; Patrick, 10; and Jeffrey, 3.

MARK DUNCAN

Assistant Coach

A versatile football tactician, Mark Duncan is coaching the Forty Niner defensive line this season after five campaigns as defensive backfield mentor. A native of Denver, Mark starred in football, basketball and baseball at Denver University. After Army service, he became assistant football and basketball coach and head baseball coach at Colorado State.

One of his top pupils was Jack Christiansen, later an all-time pro with the Detroit Lions and now Forty Niner defensive backfield coach.

Mark dropped by the Forty Niner office in the spring of 1955 to say hello. He walked out with a coaching contract.

Mark lives in Hillsdale, California, with his wife, Alice, and three children—Gail, 18; Scott, 13; and Debra, 4.

BILL JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

Bill Johnson was rated one of the game's greatest offensive centers during his nine playing seasons with the Forty Niners. After high school in his native city of Tyler, Texas, Bill enlisted in the Navy and served nearly three years in the Pacific.

In 1947, he was captain of the Tyler Junior College team that won the national jaycee championship and Little Rose Bowl crown in 1947.

He was one of 19 rookies who gave the Forty Niners a 12-2 record in 1949—their best of all time.

Bill, his wife, Dot, and their three children—Bill, Jr., 11; Sherilyn, 10; Tommy, 3—live in Palo Alto, California.

JACK CHRISTIANSEN

Assistant Coach

San Francisco fans are glad that Jack Christiansen is "on our side now." As a defensive back for Detroit Jack was the leader of the great defensive unit known as "Chris' Crew."

A graduate of Colorado State, Jack joined the Lions in 1951 and was an All-Pro choice six of his eight seasons in the NFL. He led the league in interceptions in 1953 and tied for first in 1957.

Jack is married and has three children.

LYNN (PAPPY) WALDORF

Director of Personnel

After a brilliant college coaching career at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma State, Kansas State, Northwestern and California, Pappy joined the Forty Niners as director of personnel and chief talent scout in 1957. He is on the road nine months of the year in his quest for players who'll help put the Forty Niners on top.

Already a legend in football—for his limericks as well as his coaching—Pappy had his greatest success at California where he produced Pacific Coast Conference champions and Rose Bowl squads in 1948-49-50. His 10-year record with the Bears was 66 wins, 32 losses and four ties.

Pappy was a tackle at Syracuse University in the early 1920's. After graduation, he chose coaching instead of following his father into the Methodist ministry.

He and his wife, Louise, live in Berkeley. They have two daughters and five grandchildren.

HARRISON, Bob—Linebacker Ht. 6'2" Wt. 220 Age 23 Oklahoma

There is no more dedicated player in the NFL than Robert L. Harrison . . . the 49ers' second draft choice in 1959 after he was named on the consensus All-America and chosen by United Press International as "College Lineman of the Year" . . . nicknamed "The Hog" by his Sooner teammates because of the number of tackles he made . . . suffered a serious leg injury in a boating accident in the summer of 1959—80 stitches were required—and was unable to see much action in his first year with the 49ers . . . born in Stamford, Texas, which he still calls home . . . returned to school last winter and spring for degree in marketing . . . bachelor . . . date of birth: 8/8/37 . . .

HAZELTINE, Matt—Linebacker Ht. 6'1" Wt. 220 Age 27 California

Matthew Hazeltine is living proof that people—especially football players—don't stop growing when they are 21 . . . reported to the 49ers as a fourth draft choice in 1955 at six feet, 200 pounds . . . has grown an inch and put on 20 pounds during his ever-improving pro career . . . 49er coaches regard him as one of the steadiest linebackers in the NFL . . . excellent speed and noted for ability to diagnose offensive maneuvers . . . All-America center for Pappy Waldorf at California in 1954 . . . father, Dr. Matt Hazeltine, Sr., was a football star at the same school before World War I . . . lives in Palo Alto, Calif., with his wife and daughter . . . is an insurance broker . . .

HENKE, Ed—Defensive End-Linebacker Ht. 6'4" Wt. 221 Age 32 So. California

Desire and aggressiveness have made Ed Henke one of the better defensive players in the NFL . . . suffered a knee injury in training camp in 1959 and was expected to be out for at least eight weeks—returned to action in less than three weeks . . . known as the "Frank Buck" of pro football because of his love of hunting and fishing . . . played for Los Angeles Dons in old All-America Conference in 1949, then spent a year in Canada . . . has a master's degree in education from Stanford and plans to go into teaching and coaching, although he has earned business spurs with the DiSalvo Trucking Company of San Francisco . . . married, two daughters . . .

KRUEGER, Charlie—Defensive End Ht. 6'4" Wt. 245 Age 23 Texas A&M

The 49ers' first draft selection in 1958, Charles Andrew Krueger suffered a broken arm in a preseason game and was sidelined for the rest of the year . . . returned last fall to win recognition as one of the top defensive rookies in the NFL . . . was especially effective in the club's 21-20 upset of Cleveland and received the game ball from his teammates . . . spent the off-season as a second lieutenant in the Army . . . born in Caldwell, Texas . . . three varsity letters at Texas A&M and was named on many All-America teams in 1957, as well as being picked as "Lineman of the Year" in the Southwest Conference . . . married . . . date of birth: 1/28/37 . . .

LYLES, Lenny—Offensive Halfback Ht. 6'2" Wt. 198 Age 24 Louisville

Leonard Lyles, a :9.5 blazer at Louisville, has still to make his mark in the NFL as anything other than a kick return specialist, but this could be Lenny's year . . . the big halfback has all the attributes of stardom and will be the first-line relief for Hugh McElhenny at left halfback . . . broke into the league in 1958 as Baltimore's first draft choice and had kickoff returns of 103 and 101 yards against the Bears and Redskins . . . ran back 25 kickoffs for 565 yards and a 22.6 average for the 49ers last fall after being signed as a free agent . . . his yardage was tops in the league . . .

McELHENNY, Hugh—Offensive Halfback Ht. 6'1" Wt. 198 Age 31 Washington

San Francisco's hopes for a surprising showing in the 1960 NFL race took an upward turn when Hugh McElhenny was "The King" of old in the pre-season games . . . averaged better than six yards per carry and was showing all the speed and power that made him pro ball's most feared runner in 1952-53-54 . . . in nine seasons has a five-yard average with 782 attempts for 3941 yards and 36 touchdowns, second best in 49er history . . . fourth in pass receiving with 165 for 2359 yards and 14 TDs . . . has often been called the game's greatest "Thrill Runner" . . . named most valuable player in Pro Bowl in 1958 . . . has played in five of the Los Angeles postseason classics . . . Seattle's "Man of Year" in 1951 after winning All-America honors at Washington . . . set national interscholastic record of 14 flat in high hurdles . . . led Compton to national junior college crown in 1948 . . . is partner in

MERTENS, Jerry—Defensive Halfback Ht. 6'0" Wt. 183 Age 24 Drake

Jerome William Mertens has two hobbies/collecting rare old U.S. coins and the passes thrown by 49er opponents . . . had the thrill last year of picking off a Johnny Unitas pass and running it back 30 yards for a touch-down against Baltimore . . . was particularly outstanding in his defensive work against such receivers as Del Shofner of Los Angeles and Tommy McDonald of Philadelphia . . . a 20th draft choice in 1958 and was shifted from offensive end to defensive halfback . . . native of Racine, Wisc., where he starred in football, basketball and track at St. Catherine High School . . . worked way through Drake U. by serving as a gym instructor and counselor at the Roadside Settlement Community Center in Des Moines . . . resides in Redwood City, Calif., with his wife and two children and is employed by the Balfour, Guthrie Company in San Francisco . . . date of birth: 1/5/36 . . .

MORZE, Frank—Center-Defensive Tackle Ht. 6'4" Wt. 264 Age 27 Boston College

Anyone with a calorie-counter will find a sympathetic and wise listener in Frank Joseph Morze, the pride of Gardner, Mass. . . the hefty, ex-Boston College lineman and Marine Corps veteran has waged a running—and now successful—battle with a weight problem . . . weighed in at training camp at 264 and is determined to maintain that level throughout the season after going as high as 280 in previous years . . . coaches believe he can be one of the league's best pivot men, as well as giving a good account of himself at defensive tackle . . . married and lives in Redwood City, Calif., where he is an executive for a contracting concern . . . date of birth: 3/21/33 . . .

NOMELLINI, Leo—Defensive Tackle Ht. 6'3" Wt. 262 Age 36 Minnesota

Leo Joseph Nomellini didn't play football—or any other sport—at Crane Tech in Chicago . . . he was too poor and had to work after school to help support his family . . . born in Lucca, Italy, near the famed Leaning Tower of Pisa, and brought to the U.S. as an infant . . . enlisted in the Marine Corps early in 1942 and first played football as a Leatherneck at Cherry Point, N.C. . . . was a Fighting Marine for "three years, one month, four days and 20 hours" . . . All-America tackle at Minnesota in 1948-49 where he was a starting lineman in the first college game he had ever seen . . . Big 10 heavy-weight wrestling champion, an honor that encouraged him to go into the pro ranks as a grappler during the football off-season . . . perennial All-Pro selection . . . lives in Palo Alto, Calif., with his wife and two children . . . date of birth: 6/19/24 . . . first draft choice in 1950 . . .

OSBORNE, Clancy—Linebacker Ht. 6'3" Wt. 217 Age 25 Arizona State U.

"Desire" is a much-abused term in sports but it has to be used to describe Clarence (Clancy) Osborne, one of nine 49er rookies in 1959 . . . picked up by the club on waiver from Los Angeles and immediately became a starting corner linebacker . . . an end in college at Tempe and gained recognition among pro scouts with his fine defensive play in the East-West Shrine classic of 1957 . . . suffered a neck injury in training camp and missed five preseason games but returned to action in time to recapture a starting berth on the left side . . . is in the construction business in Blythe, Calif., where he lives with his wife and daughter . . .

OWENS, R. C.—Offensive Halfback-End Ht. 6'3" Wt. 190 Age 25 Col. of Idaho

Few players have given pro grid fans more thrills in the past several seasons than R. C. (Alley-Oop) Owens . . . the nickname describes his specialty—leaping three to five feet to grab touchdown passes in the end zone . . . had a memorable rookie year in 1957 when his fantastic catches accounted for four victories during last-minute 49er comebacks . . . born in Shreveport, La., but grew up in Santa Monica, Calif., where he was an All-State prep end . . . was so outstanding in basketball, as well as football, at College of Idaho that he was offered a contract by the Harlem Globetrotters, as well as NBA clubs . . . named on Little All-Coast in 1953-54 . . . set a national record of 12 receptions for 248 yards against Lewis & Clark . . . is a playground director in Menlo Park, Calif. . . . lives in Belmont, Calif., with his wife and daughter . . . 14th draft choice as a "redshirt" in 1956 . . . date of birth: 11/12/34 . . .

PERRY, Joe—Fullback Ht. 6'0" Wt. 206 Age 33 Compton J.C.

Fletcher Joe Perry is the all-time leading rusher in the NFL—7151 yards in 1415 carries for a five-yard average in 10 seasons . . . adding Joe's two seasons in the All-America Conference you get 8496 yards in 1607 attempts and a 5.2 average . . . he is a physical phenomenon, playing one of the most vulnerable positions in football and still outlasting men who came into the game years later . . . retains the tremendous takeoff speed that gets him past the line of scrimmage before the defenders can get organized . . . will be called upon in key situations without hesitation by the 49er staff . . . was given a "Day" by San Francisco fans in 1955 when they furnished his new home . . . first man in NFL history to gain more than 1000 yards two years in succession—1018 in 1953 and 1049 in 1954 . . . born in Stevens, Ark., and attended grammar and high school in Los Angeles . . . played at Compton J.C. before enlisting in Navy . . . 49ers signed him as a free agent out of Alameda Naval Air Station in 1948 . . . resides in San Francisco with wife and daughter . . . date of birth: 1/27/27 . . .

RIDLON, Jim—Defensive Halfback Ht. 6'1" Wt. 177 Age 26 Syracuse

James Ridlon, an artist and sculptor, is the handyman of the 49er defensive backfield, taking over at safety or wing when the occasion arises . . . joined the club in 1957 as a third draft choice . . . led in interceptions in 1958 with four . . . rated one of the best all-around backs in East in 1956 when he teamed with Jim Brown to lead Syracuse to the Cotton Bowl . . . grew up in Nyack, N.Y. . . . received his master's degree in art from San Francisco State College and is now teaching the subject during the off-season in a Syracuse high school . . . married, two children . . . date of birth: 7/11/34 . . .

ROBERTS, C. R.—Fullback Ht. 6'1" Wt. 207 Age 24 Southern California

After trials with the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers, C. R. Roberts found a home with the 49ers last year . . . placed on the active roster for the final game of the season, he picked up 67 yards in 10 attempts against Green Bay, including a 46-yard touchdown run . . . has :9.8 clocking for the 100-yard dash, plus the size to overpower tacklers . . . his preseason performances in 1960 gave promise that he has "arrived" as a top running back in the NFL . . . bachelor . . . lives in Oceanside, Calif., and is working towards a master's degree in business administration at U.S.C. . . .

RUBKE, Karl—Center-Linebacker Ht. 6'4" Wt. 239 Age 24 Southern California

Only 20 years of age when he joined the 49ers as a fifth draft choice in 1957, Karl Rubke has all the potential to be a star on either offense or defense . . . 49er fans will never forget his performance at middle linebacker against the New York Giants in his rookie season when he was the key man in a defense that caused eight fumbles . . . fast, agile and aggressive . . .

attended high school at Mount Carmel in Los Angeles, then played at Santa Rosa Junior College before transferring to U.S.C. . . . majored in education . . . married . . .

After two years at U.S.C., Henry Joseph (The Hawk) Schmidt enlisted in the Marine Corps, then finished his schooling at Trinity in Texas . . . drafted sixth as a future in 1958, The Hawk joined the 49ers last year and won recognition for his uninhibited coverage of kickoffs . . . a side injury, sustained while lifting weights during the off-season, kept him out of most of this year's preseason games . . . attended Fremont High in Los Angeles and East Los Angeles Junior College before enrolling at U.S.C. . . . was on the J.C. All-America in 1954 under Coach Clyde Johnson, who played alongside Red Hickey on the L.A. Rams . . . married . . . date of birth: 9/28/37 . . .

SMITH, J. D.—Fullback Ht. 6'1" Wt. 201 Age 27 North Carolina A&T

In J. D. Smith, the 49ers have a player to match the "Cinderella" story of Baltimore's Johnny Unitas . . . picked up by the 49ers on waiver from the Chicago Bears in 1956 and was used principally as a defensive halfback until last season . . . blossomed suddenly into an offensive threat and became one of the few players in NFL history to gain more than 1000 yards in one season—207 attempts (an all-time 49er record) for 1036 yards and 10 touchdowns . . . ranked second only to Cleveland's Jim Brown . . . is expected again to be the workhorse of the 49er backfield . . . good pass receiver (13 for 133 last fall) . . . lives in Norfolk, Va., where he is a playground supervisor for the recreation department . . . married . . . two children . . .

ST. CLAIR, Bob—Offensive Tackle Ht. 6'9" Wt. 265 Age 29 U.S.F.—Tulsa

Robert Bruce St. Clair is a natural-born leader—he's the captain of the 49ers, a city councilman in his home town of Daly City, Calif., and a definite "comer" in Democratic party politics in the state of California . . . drafted third by the 49ers in 1953, the tallest man in pro football was a member of the University of San Francisco's unbeaten-untied team of 1951 . . . transferred to Tulsa after the Dons abandoned football and was an All-Missouri Valley choice in 1952 . . . gifted public speaker . . . born in San Francisco and attended Polytechnic High School . . . married, four children . . . date of birth: 2/18/31 . . .

THOMAS, John—Offensive Tackle Ht. 6'4" Wt. 246 Age 25 College of Pacific Noted more for basketball (he captained the team for two years and was named on All-Coast teams at College of Pacific, John Louis Thomas tried out with the 49ers as an offensive end in 1957 and didn't make the grade . . . he returned the next season—20 pounds heavier—and became a starting tackle on offense . . . an excellent pass blocker with speed and agility . . . born in Tyler, Texas . . . attended high school in El Cerrito, Calif. . . . had basketball tryout with the St. Louis Hawks . . . married, two children . . . date of birth: 1/25/35 . . .

TITTLE, Y. A.—Quarterback 6'1" Wt. 195 Age 33 Louisiana State

When Yelberton Abraham Tittle was a junior high school student in Marshall, Texas, his athletic hero was Sammy Baugh, then the great half-back and passer at Texas Christian University . . . now beginning his 13th year in pro ball, including two with Baltimore in the All-America Conference, the balding Tittle has a chance to surpass the records accumulated by Baugh in 16 NFL campaigns . . . Sammy attempted 3016 passes and completed 1709 for 22,085 yards . . . Tittle has attempted 2960 and completed 1627 for 21,937 yards . . . since the NFL doesn't recognize AAC accomplishments, Tittle's record (for 1950 at Baltimore and since then with San Francisco—10 seasons) shows 17,206 yards . . . the "Bald Eagle," "Colonel Slick" or whatever else he may be called certainly must be recognized as one of football's great quarterbacks over the last decade . . . at least he can claim the best passing efficiency among active NFL quarterbacks—55.3 percent with 1318 completions in 2382 attempts . . . The Colonel, a 17-year-old tailback at L.S.U. in 1945, was the AAC's "Rookie of the Year" in 1948 . . . he expanded this to "Pro Player of the Year" in 1957 when he carried the 49ers to within a whisker of a championship season . . . has a thriving insurance business in the San Francisco-Palo Alto areas and lives with his wife and three children in Atherton, Calif. . . . date of birth: 10/24/26 . . .

WILSON, Billy—Offensive End-Halfback Ht. 6'4" Wt. 190 Age 33 San Jose State

Only Don Hutson, the immortal Green Bay Packer, leads Billy Gene Wilson in pass receptions in NFL records . . . the stringbean 49er, playing his 10th season in pro ball, has caught 404 passes for 5851 yards and 48 touchdowns (Hutson in 11 seasons had 489 for 8010 yards and 101 touchdowns) . . . throughout his career, the great defensive backs of the NFL—Emlen Tunnell of New York and Green Bay and Jack Christiansen of Detroit—have tagged the 49er flankman as the toughest man to cover, particularly on the short, hook passes that have won Billy the nickname of "Poor Devil" from his teammates . . . tied for league pass receiving crown in 1955 with 53 receptions, then led in 1956 with 60 and again in 1957 with 57 . . . named most valuable player in 1955 Pro Bowl . . . born on an Indian reservation near Sayre, Okla., and has Sac and Fox Indian blood . . . operates resort facilities at Lake Tahoe, Calif., during off-season . . . resides in Campbell, Calif., with his wife and two sons . . . date of birth: 2/3/27 . . .

WITTENBORN, John—Offensive Guard Ht. 6'2" Wt. 230 Age 24 S.E. Missouri

John Otis Wittenborn has been a real handyman for the 49ers since joining the club as a 17th draft pick in 1958 . . . plays on all the special teams and fills in at offensive guard or linebacker when called upon . . . also provided a talented toe in kickoffs, conversions and field goals . . . born in Sparta, Ill., where his father operates a farm . . . won three letters in football at Southeast Missouri and two in track for the shotput and discus . . . was captain of the team and most valuable player in his senior season . . . has a sporting goods business in Cape Girardeau, Mo. . . . date of birth: 3/1/36 . . .

WOODSON, Abe—Defensive Halfback Ht. 5'11" Wt. 188 Age 25 Illinois

A Big 10 sprint and hurdle champion, with a clocking of :9.5 for the 100-yard dash, Abraham Benjamin Woodson has become one of the most feared kickoff and punt return artists in the NFL . . . joined 49ers midway in 1958 after Army service and had sewed up a starting wingback assignment by the end of the season . . . his kickoff return of 105 yards—longest in 49er records and second longest in NFL history—was the key play in the 49ers' second victory over Los Angeles last year . . . led league in kickoff returns with 13 for 382 yards—a 29.4 average—and also excelled in punt returns, placing sixth with 15 for 143 and a 9.5 average . . . second on club in interceptions with four . . . All-Pro selection by Associated Press and United Press International and was picked for Pro Bowl game . . . native of Jackson, Miss. . . . attended high school at Austin in Chicago and was an All-Big 10 halfback at Illinois in 1956-57 . . . a second draft choice . . . lives in San Francisco with his wife and infant son . . . works for a plumbing contractor . . . date of birth: 2/15/35 . . .
